

Tabernacle,

he sisters; member, and all staff-off ss, all old very article of letting ards or in s to supply g up. We g paper as the world. vy expense, twenty-five tting it up, gs, and we o, flax, etc. The inquiry h paper do ly imported some thirty Were we e would be ritory with ould supply the Terri- y thousand n. We are t of paper. k and make marked, we re also have ining our ll the paper rint in book h, do it print and for the To aid in ect. I want l hand them ay for them

THE NATIONAL RAM SALE, SALT LAKE CITY

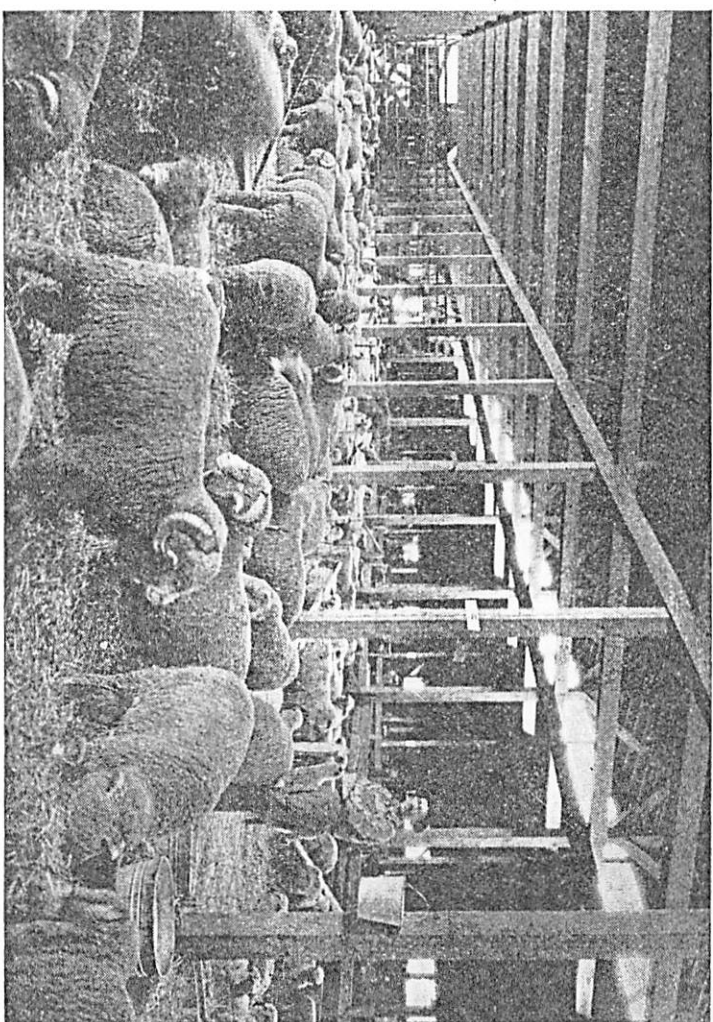

Courtesy Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce.

Frolicking of the lambs

A young lamb kicks up its heels as it enjoys the warm spring air with a couple of colleagues at a farm in East Parsonfield, Maine. Spring is the lambing season and a busy time of year for the nation's woolgrowers.

AP photo

THE NATIONAL RAM SALE, SALT LAKE CITY

Courtesy Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce.

SHEEP ENTERING NATIONAL FOREST RANGE

Courtesy Utah Engineer.

forty-seven
souls, includ
succeeded in
variety of s
to July, on length, and
the city plac
destroyed,
and frost.
June; while
by drought
injuries ab
the out-bree
ren were
the cricket
farm of th
they suffer
ment of la
valuable c
by an att
"The wh
abundant,
and the ea
each month
very differ
land white
1st of Dec
part of F
quent, and
the earth
period, va
depth, bot
day of th
ruary, the freezing p
day, the 2
21 degree
Violent a quent. T
tains has
the wood
cattle hav
scanty fa
the neces
suffer mo
The wint
unexpected
brethren
there has
has been tempts ha
pack and Bridger, s
yet it is to take t
ference.
"In the
took an in ley, when
more tha
for each
siderable
reported.
were nea
dance. T